

Barbara Mumby Huerta

Artist | Cultural Strategist | Equity-Centered Executive Leader

I am an interdisciplinary artist, curator, and executive leader working at the intersection of art, equity, and institutional transformation. For more than 30 years, my work has supported artists, cultural organizations, and public institutions in building systems rooted in integrity, accountability, and community care.

My practice bridges creative production and strategic leadership—helping organizations move beyond performative change toward lasting, ethical impact.

What I Do

Artistic Practice

Internationally exhibited visual artist working in painting, sculpture, and mixed media. My work explores memory, land, lineage, and resilience, with exhibitions in galleries, museums, and public spaces nationwide.

Cultural Leadership & Strategy

Former senior leader within public agencies and national foundations, overseeing multimillion-dollar grant portfolios, exhibitions, and citywide initiatives. Known for integrating equity, compliance, and long-term sustainability.

Consulting, Training & Speaking

I partner with artists, nonprofits, and institutions to:

- Strengthen grant readiness and funding strategy
- Design trauma-informed, equity-centered frameworks
- Support organizational change and ethical leadership
- Facilitate workshops, panels, and keynote conversations

Selected Experience & Impact

- Stewarded $20M+ in public and philanthropic grantmaking
- Increased earned revenue by 500% through strategic diversification

- Designed nationally recognized racial equity and trauma-informed frameworks
- Curated large-scale exhibitions and public art initiatives
- Featured in regional and national media for cultural leadership and artistic work

Guiding Principle

I believe art and cultural institutions hold a responsibility to operate with clarity, care, and transparency. My work is grounded in lived experience, ongoing learning, and a commitment to ethical practice that strengthens trust and long-term impact.

Let's Connect

I welcome collaboration with artists, organizations, and institutions seeking thoughtful leadership, strategic clarity, or creative partnership.
